INDIEWEBCAMP

Your content is yours

You are better connected

You are in control

When you post something on the web, it should belong to you, not a corporation. Too many companies have gone out of business and lost all of their users' data. By joining the IndieWeb, your content stays yours and in your control.

Your articles and status messages can go to all services, not just one, allowing you to engage with everyone. Even replies and likes on other services can come back to your site so they are all in one place.

You can post anything you want, in any format you want, with no one monitoring you. In addition, you share simple readable links such as example.com/ideas. These links are permanent and will always work.

The IndieWeb is a people-focused alternative to the "corporate web".

IndieWebCamp is a weekend gathering of web creators building & sharing their own websites. Meet, share ideas, and collaborate on IndieWeb design & UX to advance the independent web.

Hombrew Website Club is a bi-weekly meetup of people passionate about the web.
